Part 7 — Reading Comprehension

Questions 18–20 refer to the following log.

Aster Dinner Log — Halston, Later That Evening The mood warmed as the food arrived. The server brought a shared appetizer, then grilled seafood entrées — the restaurant's specialty — each with a seasonal side dish. When Karen mentioned that one of her colleagues was strictly vegetarian, the kitchen quietly prepared a separate plate and even sent over a complimentary dessert. Over coffee, Diane and Karen reached a verbal agreement: Aria would debut at Brightway's partner banquet. Daniel settled the bill, leaving a generous tip, while Ben boxed up the leftovers to go. Only one worry lingered: pulling off a Halston launch on Brightway's timeline would cost far more than Aster had budgeted.

18. What did Diane and Karen agree on? (A) That Aster would buy Brightway (B) That Aria would debut at Brightway's partner banquet (C) That the launch would be delayed a year (D) That Brightway would design a new product
