Part 7 — Reading Comprehension

Questions 20–22 refer to the following article.

Northbridge Daily — Business The Northbridge Tech Expo drew record crowds this year, and one of the busiest booths belonged to Aster Home Technologies. The company used the conference to show its upcoming Aria system to the public for the first time. Marketing director Daniel Cho spent much of the event networking with journalists and industry figures — including, reporters noted, representatives of rival Neura. Analysts say the strong turnout at Aster's booth suggests real public interest ahead of the product's launch.

- 20. What did Aster use the conference for? (A) To hire new engineers (B) To show the Aria system to the public for the first time (C) To sign a contract with Neura (D) To hold its annual shareholders' meeting
- 21. According to the article, what did Daniel Cho do at the event? (A) He gave the keynote speech (B) He filed a grievance (C) He networked with journalists and industry figures (D) He led a workers' strike
- 22. The word "turnout" in the article is closest in meaning to (A) the number of people who attended (B) the amount of money earned (C) the quality of the products (D) the length of the event

Questions 23–25 refer to the following note.

Eastport Plant — Weekly Note Tensions at the Eastport plant eased this week after management and the workers' union reached a temporary agreement. The union had filed a grievance over long mandatory overtime, and some workers had even discussed a walkout. Plant foreman Joe Delgado welcomed the deal but warned that it was only a short-term fix. "The team came back to work, and the dispute is settled for now," he said. "But if we push them this hard again closer to launch, I can't promise they'll stay calm."

- 23. Why had the union filed a grievance? (A) Because of low pay only (B) Because the factory was closing (C) Because of unsafe machinery (D) Because of long mandatory overtime
- 24. What is Joe Delgado's warning about the agreement? (A) The plant will close soon (B) It is only a short-term fix (C) The workers have already quit (D) The union has been dissolved
- 25. The word "eased" in the note is closest in meaning to (A) increased sharply (B) became less tense (C) disappeared completely (D) were ignored
