Part 7 — Reading Comprehension

Questions 20–22 refer to the following travel log.

Aster Travel Log — Day 1 The team's first trip to Halston did not begin smoothly. A ninety-minute delay at Marlowe airport put their connecting flight at risk, and Ben spent the layover on the phone rebooking their seats. There was even a tense moment at check-in, when a staff member noticed that Ben's passport would expire in just four months — though it was still valid for entry to Halston. In the end, the group made their connection with minutes to spare and landed in Halston late that night, tired but relieved.

- 20. What nearly caused the team to miss their connecting flight? (A) A lost passport (B) A ninety-minute delay (C) A cancelled hotel reservation (D) A missing boarding pass
- 21. What was the problem with Ben's passport? (A) It had already expired (B) It was the wrong type (C) It would expire in four months (D) It had been lost
- 22. The word "relieved" in the log is closest in meaning to (A) glad the trouble was over (B) extremely angry (C) still very worried (D) completely exhausted

Questions 23–25 refer to the following notebook entry.

Notebook — Daniel Cho Halston hits you the moment you arrive. From the airport we took the express train into the center — a smooth ride from a spotless platform — while Ben eyed the ferries crossing the bay and wondered aloud whether we should have taken one. The city is enormous: glass towers, endless traffic, and a level of wealth that makes our target market obvious. But it is also unfamiliar and demanding. This is both our biggest opportunity and our hardest test. If Aria can win here, it can win anywhere.

23. How did the team travel from the airport into the city center? (A) By ferry (B) By airport shuttle (C) By rental car (D) By express train
24. How does Daniel describe Halston? (A) Small and quiet (B) Both a big opportunity and a hard test (C) Cheap and easy to enter (D) A disappointing market
25. The word "demanding" in the notebook is closest in meaning to (A) very cheap (B) easy to please (C) requiring a lot of effort (D) far away
