Ben had booked early — a wise move, since the hotel was fully booked by nightfall. The real challenge came next: driving a rental car to the Brightway dinner. Questions 20–22 refer to the following visitor guide.

Halston Visitor Guide — Getting Around Halston is famous for its energy — and its traffic. Locals face one of the longest daily commutes in the region, and congestion downtown can be severe from 8 to 10 a.m. and again in the early evening. Visitors are advised to use the city's fast train and ferry network rather than rent a car for short trips. If you must drive, check for roadwork before you set out, and always keep an eye on your fuel, as stations are scarce in the center.

20. What does the guide advise visitors to do? (A) Rent a car for every trip (B) Use the train and ferry for short trips (C) Avoid the city entirely (D) Travel only at 9 a.m.

21. According to the guide, when is downtown congestion severe? (A) Only late at night (B) All day long (C) In the morning and early evening (D) On weekends only
